

McCANDLESS TOWN CRIER.

TOWN OF McCANDLESS

VOLUME 6 — JANUARY, 1983

GUARD AGAINST THEFT

Officer Gary Anderson reminds residents that parking lots of retail stores and shopping malls are "high incident" areas for motor vehicle theft—a fast growing crime. Many stolen vehicles are unlocked or have the windows partially open. Others are parked with keys in the ignition. You can help the Police Department reduce vehicle theft opportunities and prevent thefts from cars by following these rules when you park:

1. Lock ignition and remove keys. Don't hide keys in cars.
2. If on a commercial lot or garage, leave ignition key with attendant. Retain all others.
3. If in your own garage, keep both car and garage locked.
4. Before leaving car, secure windows, vents, glove compartments, trunk and doors.
5. Transfer clothes, packages and personal items to locked trunk prior to parking.
6. Do not leave money, valuables, check-book, wallet or credit cards in your car.
7. Park in a well lighted area.
8. Remember exact location where your car is parked.
9. Have license number and other vehicle identification items on a card, in your wallet or purse. Do not leave Vehicle Registration Card in your car.
10. If your car is stolen, report it to the police immediately.

Women should also be alert to purse snatch robberies in parking areas. A purse snatcher will rip a purse from an unsuspecting woman's hand and run. Many women sustain injury by falling and being pushed to the ground. Follow these simple rules to prevent "purse snatch":

1. Clutch your bag tightly and carry close to your body—a dangling bag is an invitation.
2. Never lay your bag down near an open car window, on the seat of a public transportation vehicle or while inside a store shopping. An unattended bag is a temptation.
3. Know your handbag—description, articles inside the handbag, serial numbers, charge plates, amount and denomination of money, keys and identification marks.

4. Do not carry large sums of money or valuable jewelry in your purse.

Be wary of youths or men running past you; following you; or, approaching you in a suspicious manner.

Do not attempt to resist and physically fight the assailant. Try to maintain your balance and keep from falling or being injured.

Call for help to attract the attention of other citizens in the vicinity.

Call police as quickly as possible—Give police a full and thorough description of the thief including clothing, as well as physical characteristics.

If charge plates, checks or bankbooks are stolen, notify the pertinent stores or banks as soon as you can.

If you witness a "purse snatch", call police; aid the victim; be willing to report what you heard and saw; identify the criminal; and, testify in court.

EARNED INCOME TAX

Thanks to the efforts of Marolyn Shaw, delinquent Earned Income Tax collections, within the Town of McCandless, have increased substantially.

The Earned Income Tax Office plans to continue checking their records in an effort to collect all taxes due and payable to the Town. The office is concentrating on working residents who are not paying the tax and checking the accuracy of final returns. If you are a resident of the Town, and employed, but not paying Earned Income Tax, it is imperative that you contact the tax office at once. If you filed a final return and later found it was incorrect, inform the tax office so that your tax records can be corrected immediately. Don't wait until you are contacted by the Town on discrepancies. The time delay will cost you additional money in penalties and interest.

Effective in 1982, ALL earned income must be substantiated by proof of earnings—even those whose tax is withheld by employers. Your final form must include proof of earnings. A copy of your W-2, State or Federal tax return or payroll receipts are recommended to support reported earnings. (Copies of Rule and Regulations for Filing and Collecting Earned Income Tax are available at the Town Hall.)

Earned Income Tax Collector, Edith Liguori (seated) and Marolyn Shaw.

Payment of Earned Income Tax is mandatory. It is your responsibility to notify the Town when the tax is due. If you know of someone who is not paying Earned Income Tax, but should be, please notify our office. Why foot the bill for someone else? If we all pay our fair share, tax increases can be curtailed.

FIRE MARSHAL REMINDERS

Boy Scout Troop 335 has placed yellow arrows on utility poles indicating the locations of 667 fire hydrants in the Town. Hydrants in areas with underground utility cables or those with cables entering from the rear of properties could not be marked. Residents in these areas (as well as ALL others) are urged to keep fire hydrants highly visible by keeping them free of piled-up and drifting snow during winter months.

Many residents are considering the purchase of portable kerosene burning heaters. They should be sure the apparatus bears a UL (Underwriter's Laboratories) or FM (Factory Mutual) label. Also, operating instructions should be adhered to and kerosene should be stored in approved containers in a safe place (garage or outdoors).

GOOD NEWS: NO INCREASE

McCandless Town Manager R. L. Von Hofen reports taxes for 1983 will remain the same as 1982: Real Estate — 10 Mills, Deed Transfer — ½%, Earned Income — ½%, and Business Privilege — 1 Mill.

Mr. VonHofen cited cost-effective practices kept administrative and public service costs to an absolute minimum. The newly enacted Business Privilege Tax (which should generate approximately $200,000). aided in providing additional revenue to offset increased costs. Because of a cooperative effort, 1982 saw the continuation of programs to maintain essential needs of the Town. As an example, he pointed out the extensive road paving/reconstruction program that involved over 10 miles of Town roads.

In submitting his 1983 Recommended Budget to Council, Mr. VonHofen stated, "With the economic conditions of 1982, the proposed budget reflects the same level of service, but does not allow for any deviation or excessive expansion of programs except those that have been recommended for 1983. Any additional requests for new programs will only impact current levels of service. The 1983 road program was the most drastically reduced. This was possible due to prior year commitments being accomplished. Fire Protection and Public Safety are the largest increases for 1983. These increases are recommended because funding must be made available for future years."

He concluded, "As we enter the mid 1980's, government is being asked to become more efficient in operation. This becomes more difficult due to federal and state regulations coupled with concerned taxpayers. The Town of McCandless will be required to provide services with less revenue in the future. Each tax dollar will have to be used frugally."

"THANK YOU'S" DUE

Public service, though self-gratifying, often goes unrecognized. It's now time to acknowledge the efforts of some who contribute so much to our community.

INGOMAR GARDEN CLUB — Members maintain the beautifully landscaped area at the David E. Councilman Memorial Park at the Ingomar and Ingomar Heights Roads intersection. In addition to contributing their time and talent, members provide plantings to the McCandless Town Hall and Northland Public Library.

AMBULANCE AUTHORITY — The areas most comprehensive and modern emergency medical service is provided by the McCandless/Franklin Park Ambulance Authority. Manned 24 hours a day, the 4 mobile trauma units are equipped with life-support systems and staffed by highly-trained and qualified Emergency Medical Technicians and Paramedics who serve voluntarily.

FIRE COMPANIES — Area fire protection is provided by 3 Volunteer Fire Companies: Highland, Peebles and Ingomar. Each is equipped to handle all types of blazes and emergency related services individually or assisted by other fire companies. Personnel must attend fire schools to learn the most effective fire fighting methods and add to their abilities through on-going practice sessions. (See additional article in this issue.)
BOARDS and COMMISSIONS — Vital to the operation and growth of McCandless is the work of Boards and Commissions whose members serve voluntarily. They include: Personnel Board, Planning Commission, Zoning Hearing Board, Sanitary Authority, Ambulance Authority, Industrial Development Authority, North Allegheny Joint Authority and Northland Public Library Authority.

So, to those who serve so willingly, we who benefit, extend our "thanks".

STOP SIGNS A SAFETY HAZARD?

Town officials receive many requests from residents for installation of stop signs. Each is sincerely considered necessary by the person making the request. However, Police Chief Patrick McCabe warns ALL requests may not provide overall safety.

Citing a recently released bulletin, Chief McCabe said that Traffic Engineers report that, unfortunately, improperly used stop signs diminish their value as positive traffic safety devices.

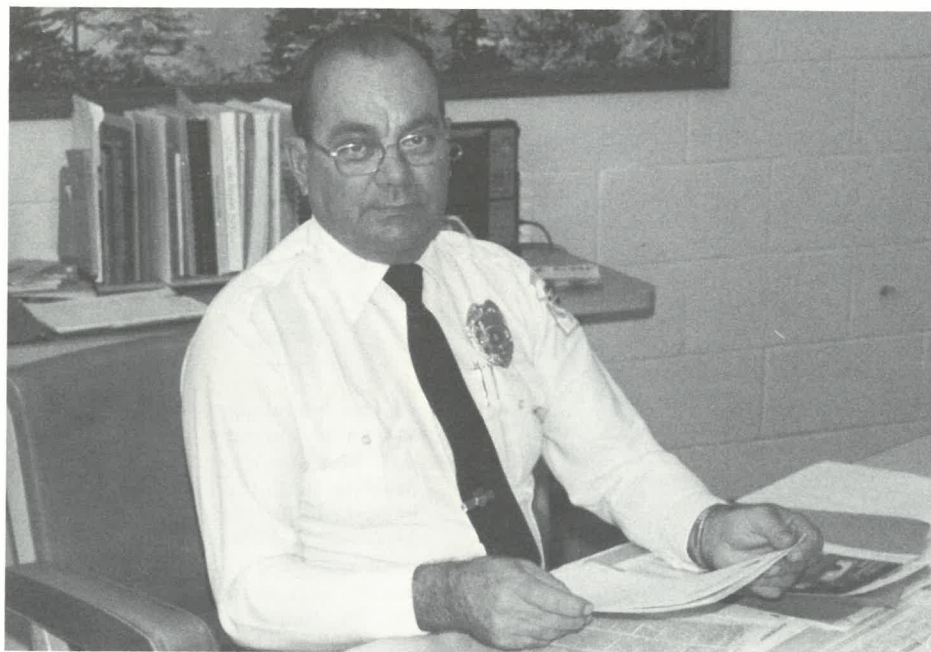

During the past 15 years, there has been a growing trend for municipalities to install stop signs at all approaches to many intersections. Stop signs are meant to be used at intersections to alert drivers as to who has the right-of-way. When improperly used — as speed breakers or nuisances — there is a high incidence of intentional violation. Where vehicles do stop, speed reduction is effective only in the immediate vicinity of the stop sign, and speeds frequently are actually higher between intersections.

Years ago, a stop sign meant “stop” and virtually everyone obeyed it. Now, after flagrant misuse of the sign, many motorists consider it to mean “slow and slide”. This attitude is so prevailing that some communities add a supplemental sign at conventional two-way stop intersections advising, “cross street not required to stop”.

Misused stop signs can: create a false sense of security of pedestrians; an attitude of contempt for motorists, a build-up of cars at intersections; plus, wasted gasoline, increased noise and higher air pollution levels. Experience has shown that motorists will respect signs when they are reasonably spaced, but improper use threatens their value everywhere.

Police Chief Patrick B. McCabe

SOCCER FIELDS

In response to many requests from McCandless residents and soccer leagues, construction of practice and regulation size soccer fields is now being considered. If constructed, the fields will be located on Ingomar Road just west of Grubbs Road, and should be completed in 1983.

Use of the fields will be by permit only by Town of McCandless residents and organized soccer leagues whose members are McCandless residents without charge. Use by non-residents will require payment of a fee.

With the growing popularity of soccer, it is felt that the new fields will be used practically year-round.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

The Town continues to grow as several developments approved by Town Council over the past few years are now beginning construction.

The second phase of the Villa of North Park is well underway. The internal roadway structure has been completed and several building permits have been issued for individual residences. The second phase of the Villa is located on Babcock Boulevard toward the northern most boundary of the Town. Carl Spagnola and Spagnola Builders are the developers.

The Forest Oaks town house development has begun. The internal roadway was started this fall and is contemplated to be completed during the spring of 1983. This particular development is located on Richard Road behind David Weis. Austin Contracting is the developer of record.

The Kroger store and K-Mart store located on Blazier Drive were opened this past fall. Construction of the balance of the shopping center, which will join these two buildings, is contemplated to begin in the spring. Blazier-McKnight is the developer of record.

The intersection at the corner of Babcock Boulevard and McKnight Road was completed early in November of 1982. The office complex is currently under construction and it is anticipated that Corporate Drive will be completed during the spring of 1983. During the spring of 1983, it will be necessary to close Babcock Boulevard for approximately 40 days to further facilitate installation of storm water drainage as well as further modification to the section of Babcock Boulevard abutting this development. Radice Corporation of Fort Lauderdale, Florida is the developer.

McCANDLESS, ZIPCODE 00000

Do some people wonder where you actually live? They can't tell by your address. McCandless has a population of nearly 27,000, schools, churches, a major hospital, businesses and over 9,000 residences . . . but no Post Office.

Mail to McCandless residents is sent to Pittsburgh, Allison Park, Gibsonia, Wexford and Ingomar. In fact, McCandless Town Hall has a Wexford mailing address. So, when confused friends, acquaintances and people with whom you do business find it hard to determine exactly where you live, understand their quandary and tell them to share your patience. Someday, maybe someday, McCandless may have a zip code they can call their own.

OUR KIND OF TOWN

Less than a century ago, McCandless was farmland and oil wells. It's population of 1,500 was less than 1/10 of today's total residents. Named for Wilson McCandless—the judge who handled the legal separation from Pine Township—it became a second-class township in 1851. Today, McCandless is a home rule municipality (which permits voters and elected officials to guide its growth without need for legislative action from the state capitol in Harrisburg) and is Pennsylvania's only "Town."

The Town's 16.4 square miles is essentially residential. Single-family residences predominate, while apartment complexes serve the needs of prospective homeowners. A recent survey indicated 78% of the Town's residents have lived here for 6 or more years, with 58% having resided in McCandless 11 to 20 years. A majority indicated their reasons for locating in the Town were still valid. And, the reasons are many; with convenience, environment, education and recreation, but a few.

Located about 12 miles north of Pittsburgh, residents have easy access to the city. (One day, a new expressway will facilitate the trip.) The Pennsylvania Turnpike and Interstate highways are only minutes away. Stores and shops are within easy driving distance, as are theatres and restaurants. In fact, it's hard not to find what's needed in, or adjacent to the Town.

Allegheny County's 2,700 acre North Park is located partly within Town limits. Its 18-hole golf course, tennis courts, swimming pool and skating rink are convenient for use by Town residents. Fishing, boating, picnic groves and nature trails are also available for recreation.

Education is a deep concern to most people, and McCandless residents are well provided with exceptional facilities. North Allegheny School District provides high-quality education for Kindergarten-age children through 12th grade. Cumberland School for exceptional children and Beattie Technical School are located in the Town. Higher education is available at La Roche College (located on 160 acres in the Town) or by attending nearby Allegheny County Community College.

Yes there are many reasons why McCandless is "our kind of Town." It's contemporary, yet restful. Homes are well-maintained by proud property owners. Public services (police, fire and road maintenance) are highly regarded by residents they serve. Local government is handled effectively and efficiently by elected and appointed officials. McCandless is indeed: A place to live and grow. A community of which to be proud!

FIRE COMPANIES NEED SUPPORT

The Town of McCandless financially supports Volunteer Fire Companies serving the community. Although the Town has recently established a sinking fund for equipment maintenance and replacement, additional financial aid is needed.

In the past, fire companies did not conduct fund-raising programs or events. Now, with ever-increasing costs, it's essential that they augment finances received from the Town. Now that BINGO is legal in Pennsylvania, the Peebles Fire Company is holding games at their fire hall on Thursday evenings beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Another continuing need is for personnel. Our fire companies now have a total of 75 members to serve our population of 26,131. (That's an average of 349 residents per fireman.) In addition to 9,063 households, they serve 11 apartment complexes, 11 schools, 10 churches, 4 shopping centers, 3 nursing homes, 2 convents, 1 college, 1 theatre complex and 1 hospital.

An undermanned fire company—no matter how well equipped—operates under a serious handicap. Our companies are not exceptions! To maintain efficient service, more volunteers are needed. Please call any of the presidents for information on joining: James Hough (Highland) 364-5619; Gerard Aufman, Jr. (Ingomar) 364-1814; or, Thomas Scholl (Peebles) 366-8539.
