Mission Statement: "Ryan's Wings understands that addiction is a devastating disease that destroys and affects lives and families. Our mission is to lend support to those in early recovery from substance abuse disorder while giving hope to the children affected. We help those coming from rehab in early recovery from substance abuse disorder with rent in a sober house."

We recently started an additional program called M.A.C.K. (Making Activities Count for Kids). This is to assist the children that grew up in the chaos of addiction with financially paying for extracurricular activities. (sport, dance, art music, etc) This may help develop some normalcy to their life.
